

Compassionate Conversations

A speaker series engaging challenging conversations marked by compassion, kindness, and empathy

with Dr. Yasmeen Abu Fraiha

Dr. Yasmeen Abu Fraiha is a fellow with the Middle East Initiative at Harvard Kennedy School and a medical doctor with a specialty in internal medicine, currently completing a clinical fellowship in critical care at Beth Israel Deaconess Medical Center (BIDMC).

Dr. Abu Fraiha is a Palestinian citizen of Israel and a physician who served as a first responder to victims of Hamas' brutal attack in Israel on October 7th. On that day she lost many colleagues, friends and neighbors, and in the subsequent weeks and months she lost friends in Gaza during Israel's devastating military campaign.
